

GENERAL ZACHARY TAYLOR ELECTED!
The Grand Result.

Sufficient returns have been received to unceringly indicate the election of Gen. TAYLOR President, and MILLARD FILLMORE Vice President of this great Republic, for four years from the 4th of March next.

As this glad news came rolling over the country, it sent a thrill of joy to the hearts of millions, and the exclamation involuntarily escaped the lips of thousands, "THE COUNTRY IS SAFE!"

Aye! "THE COUNTRY IS SAFE!" Her destinies will soon be committed to the hands of a man whose Platform is her sacred, blood-bought Constitution, and who stands pledged only to defend that sacred platform from invasions without or immolation within. That he will do this, in addition to his recent pledges to that effect, we have his whole life as a guarantee. Who asks more? No one who knows Gen. Taylor, or who has studied his life and character.

As far as is yet known, the States that have contributed to this glorious result, are

New York,	36
Pennsylvania,	26
Massachusetts,	12
Rhode Island,	4
Connecticut,	7
New Jersey,	6
Maryland,	8
Vermont,	6
North Carolina,	11
Georgia,	10
Kentucky,	12
Tennessee,	13
Louisiana,	6

which give a handsome majority of the votes of the Electoral college. We think this majority will yet be increased.

With the result of this election, we sincerely believe a great majority of the people of the United States will be pleased—and notwithstanding Gen. Taylor will receive the Government enormously in debt, and consequently greatly embarrassed, yet we opine by the time his four years are out, so satisfactorily will he have administered its affairs, that he will retire from office with a stronger hold upon the affections of the people, than has so recently been indicated in his behalf; if, indeed, they permit him then to retire.

The moral effect of this victory, is incalculable. Party debasement and unscrupulousness, will be no recommendation to posts of honor, trust, or profit under Gen. Taylor. Honesty, capability, faithfulness to the constitution, must be the qualifications of his co-laborers and subordinates. While, as ever, he will stand ready to defend the honor and fame of his country, to death, if need be, the honor and interests of other nations will be held sacred. We may look for laudable efforts to increase the bonds of union in our now distracted country, rather than a lustful desire for the territory of neighboring countries, which overleaps constitutional barriers, and national rights, producing war, with its insuperable train of evils.

Well may the silver-haired patriot rejoice that he has lived to see a man of the olden school chosen to preside over the destinies of that country whose liberties he has fought to perpetuate! Well may the middle-aged rejoice in the election of a man whose honesty and patriotism, whose devotion to the country and its prosperity, gives a guarantee of her onward and upward career to glory and renown! Well may the young rejoice in having so prominently before them, in the persons of the President and Vice President elect, a verification of one of the most beautiful features of our beloved country, that her most honored and responsible posts are open to each and every one of them—and that her citizens will reward Honesty and Merit.

In Upper California the gold excitement is greatly on the increase. Gov. Mason reached Monterey, (from the place,) bringing with him deserters whom he found upon the road carrying a press of canvass, and shaping their course for the region of the precious metal. His worthy and facetious excellency placed these fellows, bare-backed, on a few spare horses he had with him, and, although the sailors frequently begged to be allowed to walk, they were pertinaciously refused, and compelled to travel in this way for sixty miles. On the 10th of August, a court martial commenced on board the Congress for the trial of the deserters from the Warren, above alluded to. Some of the cases have been decided, but the sentences have not been promulgated. It is thought the punishment will be severe.

WHIG MEETING.

At a meeting of the Whigs of Glasgow and vicinity, held at "Crenshaw's Hotel," on Tuesday evening last, to take into consideration the propriety of celebrating, in a proper manner, the recent triumph of the people over the office-holders, in the election of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR, President, and MILLARD FILLMORE, Vice President of the United States, W. F. DUNNICA was called to the Chair, and Clark H. Green appointed Secretary.

On motion, a committee was appointed consisting of F. A. Savage, I. P. Vaughan, T. Shackelford, W. G. Chiles, and R. G. Runyan, to report a preamble and resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

The committee reported as follows: In the exercise of the privileges which belong to us as a portion of the great Whig party, and in view of the recent triumphant victory achieved by the Whigs of the Union, in the Presidential canvass, we deem it right and proper, publicly to express our joy, and join with our fellow whigs throughout the country, in celebrating the no less glorious than important event. Therefore

Resolved, That we congratulate the Whigs of the United States in general, and the whigs of Howard county here assembled in particular, upon the election of the glorious old hero, ZACHARY TAYLOR, President, and the patriotic Statesman, MILLARD FILLMORE, Vice President, of this great Republic.

Resolved, That as an expression of our joy at so auspicious an event in the political history of our country, we will, one and all, illuminate every whig house in our town and vicinity, on Monday night, 20th instant.

Resolved, That we invite every friend of Gen. Taylor in Howard and adjoining counties, to meet with us on that occasion.

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed as a committee of arrangements, who are requested to determine the arrangements for the evening, and publish the same in the Glasgow Weekly Times.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted, and the following persons appointed the committee of arrangement: C. B. Falkenstein, R. G. Runyan, I. P. Vaughan, Samuel Steinmetz, W. J. Horsey, Thos. Blatchford, Thos. Shackelford; and on motion, the chairman was added to said committee.

After several speeches, the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Taylor and Fillmore.

W. F. DUNNICA, Chairman.
CLARK H. GREEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

1st. At the first firing of the cannon after dark, all the houses will be illuminated.

2d. As soon as convenient thereafter, a general meeting will take place at the school room of Chas. D. Simpson, on 1st street.

3d. As soon as the company is assembled, a procession will be formed and move through the principal streets of the city, and back to the place of starting, where several speeches will be delivered. Seats will be provided for the ladies.

4th. Torches, transparencies, banners, &c., will be assigned a place in the procession as they arrive.

5th. John H. Turner and R. G. Runyan, are appointed Marshalls of the evening.

By order of the committee.

WHIG JUBILEE IN RANDOLPH.—The Whigs of Randolph will celebrate the election of Gen. Taylor to-morrow, (Friday), evening, at Huntsville. They expect to have an illumination, procession, speaking, and a ball, and would be pleased to have as many of their whig friends be with them as possible.

Ninety-nine majority for Old Zack, settles that contested election, in a very handsome manner! We chanced to be at Huntsville when the news of Taylor's election was received. We were not generally acquainted with the people and their politics, but could easily distinguish a whig from a loco, across the street, so joyous looked the one, so long-faced the other!

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

We send the "Times" this week to upwards of one hundred new subscribers, obtained in a trip through Chariton, Linn, Macon and Randolph, during the last ten days.

We are gratified, truly, on making our first appearance under such favorable auspices. Friends, Gen. Taylor is elected!—Your Government, during the next four years, will be in Honest Hands—Faithful Hands—Republican Hands! The country is rescued from the clutches of the blood-suckers, and will now be put upon the old Republican track. Thanks to an Intelligent and Patriotic People!

The Whigs are busy congratulating themselves on their recent triumph, and the loco editors who have fooled their readers, and caused many of them to lose their money, are talking largely about "frauds," "Roorbacks," "whig lies and tricks," &c. This is poor consolation, but it is all they have.

LINNEUS—LINN COUNTY.

LINNEUS, the county seat of Linn county, is beautifully situated, and improving very rapidly. The town has a neat, life-like appearance, in which respect it is very unlike many of our inland towns. It is a sufficient distance from the river, not to be affected by the towns immediately on the river, and is a point at which considerable business is done. There are five stores in the place, all of whose keepers appeared to be engaged in waiting on customers, and were apparently doing a good business. There are two taverns in the place; the way-worn traveller will find every thing to make him feel at home, by calling on S. TINSO. The Court-house at Linneus is a very handsome and comfortable building.

The county of Linn is inferior to none in point of soil and water advantages. The prairie and woodland is admirably proportioned, rich and productive, guaranteeing to the Farmer ample remuneration for his labor; the country is well watered by streams, which have some of the best mills on them in the State, both saw and grist. The best possible evidence of the advantages of Linn county, is the rapidity with which it has been settled. As recently as fifteen years, there was but one settler in the county. Now the town of Linneus must have a population of some four hundred, while the county gives some seven hundred votes! of which number the locos have a majority of some seventy-five or one hundred—which is destined, ere long, to the peaceful shades of oblivion, where reposes the late Gen. Cass!

The Whigs of Linn are a patriotic, whole-souled set, and have placed us under lasting obligations to them. According to promise, we greet them with the good news of Old Zack's election!

BLOOMINGTON, the county seat of Macon, is a much smaller place than we expected to find, and wore to us something the appearance of a man who had "seen better days." The buildings, with a few exceptions, are of a temporary nature; the court house, "the temple of justice," no christian would house cattle in! It is a large edifice, built of brick, which looked as if they had been afflicted with fever and ague, ever since their residence in town—and this idea was strengthened by the shattered condition of the windows and doors, the one being pane-less and the other hinge-less. His Honor sat before the fire, in one corner of the house, surrounded by lawyers and their clients, and when too many of them were not between him and the fire, occasionally got up and warmed himself; the members of the bar appeared in over-coats and over-shoes, and made short addresses to shivering jurymen. The wind whistled through the crevices, as if making sport of the exertions of the worthy sheriff, to keep up fires! We were there on Wednesday, after the election, but could not learn the result. The locos usually give a majority of some two hundred and fifty, but from the best information we could get, Cass' majority was under one hundred! A good old Whig with whom we conversed, said the small majority Cass had received, was the reason the locos did not know the result in the county, but, said he, the fog will blow off after awhile,—the locos don't want to know, but we'll teach them!

There is much good land in Macon, which is being settled by industrious farmers, and it will eventually be a rich country. The position of Bloomington is such, that it is bound to make a place of some size and business. A little county and town pride, will bring both out—and if we mistake not the zeal of the whigs, will give them the ascendancy, by the time General Taylor is President four years.

ILLINOIS.—The election returns from this State indicate large gains for Gen. Taylor upon the election in 1844, when Polk carried the State by nearly thirteen thousand. These gains are not confined to any particular part of the State, but are found on the north and in the south, in the east and the middle counties. Whether they will be sufficient to annihilate Polk's majority, and thus give the State to Taylor, is however, problematical. The effort has been a mighty one on the part of the whigs, and proves what may be done by energy and enthusiasm in such a cause. If the Whigs are not successful now, they will at least have ascertained their strength, and this will be of great service to them in future contests.

In 49 counties the whig gain is a little over 6800 votes. There are one hundred counties in the State, and it would require nearly the same rate of gain to secure the State for Gen. Taylor. This cannot be calculated upon, with any safety, as almost all the counties in which "Free Soil" exercised any influence have been heard from.

The popular vote cannot be known until the official statements are published, and until then the people must have a little patience. Gen. Cass, it is quite certain, will appear in a larger minority of the popular vote than the electoral vote indicates. | | In this State, and if we mistake not, in all others, the Electors meet at the seat of Government and cast their votes on the first Wednesday in December next. | |

FROM CALIFORNIA.—A correspondent of the New York Courier, writing from La Paz, Lower California, on the 15th of August, gives the following information:

In upper California the gold fever increases. At Mazatlan there has been a counter revolution, and one of the officers concerned in the last outbreak was shot, and others were undergoing trial. Falsetto, the leader of the rebellion has escaped, and Triza, whose influence and money brought it about, has been in La Paz for some time. It is said that Arias, at the head of seven hundred cavalry, is now on his way to take charge of the Government of Sinaloa. Liberal views are to be entertained, and many privileges which the people have asked are to be granted; and thus, it is thought, matters will be kept quiet on this coast for a few months at least.

All the ships composing the American squadron are now at La Paz, but are destined for Upper California. The Dale was to sail immediately for the Gulf, and the Congress for the United States.

Commodore Jones has appointed Commissioners to examine into claims of some people of Lower California for losses sustained during the war. Such claims are to be paid out of the revenue collected at Mazatlan, Guaymas, and other ports on the coast.

FOR SALT RIVER.

The Republican of last Saturday morning announced that the newly repaired craft "democracy," Lewis Cass master, was about to leave for the head waters of salt river, by Express and Telegraph, the effects of the late democratic party at this port, have been enabled to get on board, mainly through the indefatigable exertions of their agent. The General advertisement gave satisfaction: The late party was pleased to hear the "bar was well supplied," and that "passengers would be allowed to turn in with boots on"—and more particularly that no "allusion to the late election will be allowed." All things being thus satisfactory, the agent informs us he has the effects of the late party at this port, to-wit: the "Captain," and two dozen copies of the "Banner" containing the account of the whig meeting at Fayette; (these effects were shipped very low, being of exceeding light weight); the author of the celebrated "grease spot" letter, which originally appeared in the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times; (the agent was troubled to get the letter writer on board, but succeeded in convincing the commander that he was sound on the Proviso); the man that bought the Pump; (taken cheap for his social qualities); several kegs, boxes, &c., supposed to contain the powder and candles prepared for the celebration of Cass' election.
